The Discovery Country Suites and Restaurant Verbena

Perched on a ridge overlooking the world-renowned Taal Volcano, the Discovery Country Suites is a charming seven-suite Bed and Breakfast in cool and breezy Tagaytay, just a short drive away from Manila. The cozy manor home is a haven for the majestic view of Taal Lake and breathtaking sunsets, while colorful parks, rustic farms, and quaint coffee shops are just moments away.

With its double-glazed windows designed by an acoustic engineer, Discovery Country Suites provides guests a serene ambiance. Its uniquely themed suites – Oxford, Nantucket, Nara, Saint-Tropez, Andalucia, Siam, and Ceylon are aptly designed with furniture accent pieces, beddings, and linens that depict the cities where the rooms are named after. Each room is spacious, especially Oxford. This Victorian-style master suite includes a large bedroom and bathroom plus a separate sitting area. The rooms project a particular character with designs that work to cultivate a warm, cozy atmosphere. There's Andalucia, the Spanish-themed suite, Saint-Tropez suite which is French-Tuscan inspired, Siam is Thai-Malay enthused, while Nara evokes a Japanese feel. The Sri Lankan inspired suite is called Ceylon and the airy American suite, Nantucket. A stay in Discovery Country Suites comes with exquisite wine and cheese at sundown, and delectable milk and cookies at bedtime.

Complementing its charm is Restaurant Verbena, Discovery Country Suites' multi-awarded gourmet gem. The culinary destination pairs the rich, stimulating flavors of contemporary cuisine with the heartwarming ingredients of farm-fresh country food. It features a medley of local and western comfort dishes complemented by an extensive wine list. The signature Verbena Country Breakfast is the highlight
